

ROB LUCAS

MANAGING DIRECTOR

Rob Lucas joined Turley Associates in Manchester from the public sector in 1986 and has been instrumental in development of the company and its consultancy services. He was appointed MD in 2001. Rob has considerable experience of retail, commercial, housing and city centre projects and acts regularly as project coordinator, team consultant and as an expert witness.

Qualifications:

BSc (Hons) DipTP MRTPI

Recent Projects:

- City centre retail-led regeneration development, Hull for Henderson Global Investors/Insight Investment
- Regeneration strategy and masterplan for Pilgrim St, Newcastle for Multiplex
- Expansion strategy for Redditch town centre for Thornfield/Lehman
- Campus development strategy for Edge Hill University College, Lancashire
- Rationalisation and redevelopment strategies for major industrial sites including former BAE Bolton
- Lead consultant for Sainsbury's regional teams in northern England
- Strategic advice and project direction for Unite and David Lloyd Leisure development programs
- Housing redevelopment of brownfield and contaminated sites in north-west England for leading housebuilders
- Motorway Service Area developments and related public inquiries on M25, M6, M1 for Swayfields

Employment History:

- Managing Director, Turley Associates 2001
- Director, Turley Associates 1992
- Senior Associate, Robert Turley Associates 1986
- Senior Planner, Salford City Council 1980
- Assistant Planner, Beverley Borough Council 1979
- Assistant Planner, Cheshire County Council 1977