

GARY FORSTER

DIRECTOR

Gary joined Turley Associates in June 1995 and has 20 years' experience in planning, with a focus on central London residential, mixed use and retail development, CPO and other inquiries. Emphasis is placed on negotiating consents through the evolution of appropriate schemes that meet planning, design and client objectives; and delivery of results through good tactics and a strategic approach.

Qualifications:

BA (Hons) MPhil MRTPI FRSA

Recent Projects:

- Lead consultant for Sainsbury's regional teams in the West Midlands and London
- Crest Nicholson London for major mixed use scheme in Wandsworth
- Dunedin Property for expansion of the Pentagon Centre, Chatham
- Hammerson for local plan inquiry and retail development, Southampton
- Sainsbury's for major mixed-use scheme on highly contaminated site at Selly Oak, Birmingham involving retail, leisure, residential and office/technology industry; canal restoration
- West Hertfordshire NHS Trust and Watford Borough Council for masterplan of West Watford including regional hospital, employment, leisure, residential and infrastructure
- NHS Trust, St Mary's Hospital, W2: outline planning permission for a new hospital and 1 million sq ft of commercial floorspace, and demolition of a listed building
- The Crown Estate, Regent Street, W1: project and strategic advice in relation to estate asset management

Employment History:

- Director, Turley Associates 1995
- Associate Partner, Hillier Parker 1991